Call for candidates

Jazz à Vienne 2022

THE INNOVATIVE JAZZ EDUCATION PROGRAM!

For the 3rd edition, Jazz à Vienne presents the JazzUp, a summer camp with a complete and original training program for young French and international musicians aiming at professional careers in jazz music. 9 intense days and a complete immersion into Jazz à Vienne !

REVIEW OF THE LAST EDITION (2019)

- ▶ 22 students from the United-States, Spain, France and Switzerland participated in 2019 (The 2 last editions were cancelled because of the sanitary crisis).
- ▶ 3 international partners were involved: Jazzreach (the United-States), Taller de Musics (Spain) and Biguine Jazz Festival (Martinique).
- ▶ The 2nd edition confirmed the potential of this internship with its unique program and an international dimension.

PROGRAM

- ▶ Instrumental practice: the courses are provided by internationally renowned jazz musicians (Alex Terrier (saxophone), Jérôme Beaulieu (piano) and Hans Schuman (drums) in 2019).
- ▶ Live practice: JazzUp gives the students the possibility to perform many times during the festival in jam sessions (with the Canadian band Razalaz in 2019) or concerts on stage in professional conditions.
- ▶ Educational program: readings, documentary screenings, discussions and meetings with professional musicians (Chucho Valdès and Terence Blanchard in 2019 / Hermeto Pascoal and Tank and the Banga's in 2018). The journalist and producer Ashley Kahn is in charge of this program.
- ▶ Live concerts : Trainees have access to a selection of concerts in the Roman theatre, the festival's main stage.

JazzUp 2022

CALL FOR CANDIDATES

For the third edition, Jazz à Vienne would like to cooperate with new international talents. Joining the JazzUp project is a real opportunity for you to work with a new generation of musicians from all over the world, but also to bound up with renowned professionals of the field. While improving your musical abilities, you will follow a solid program leading you to perform on stage before an informed audience and explore all aspects of the jazz universe.

"To interact, collaborate, find your voice, have your say and be heard. This is the beauty of JAZZ - to participate and contribute to the collective process of music-making in a context that simultaneously encourages and celebrates individual expression and creative self-realization."

Join us! Find the music in YOU and JazzUp your summer!!
